

Resources links for Airway

<http://rrapid.leeds.ac.uk/ebook/> Pages 8-15 Airway assessment

Managing ETT PJZ

<https://www.fundamentalsurgery.com/ventilator/en/> Ventilator values

https://training.oslertechnology.com/community/basic_airway/basic_airway_v5/story.html

Osler basic airway management course.

Caring for a patient on CPAP \(18min\) NUH 10/4/20

Signs of deterioration

Increasing respiratory rate, decreasing oxygen saturations or increasing need for supplementary oxygen are all indicators that the patient may be getting worse. This may mean the patient will require further help with breathing, such as intubation and mechanical ventilation
When observations are worsening, a doctor should be informed straight away